MICHELE ANGELINI

Tenor

Mr. Angelini made his European debut in 2006 as Conte di Liebenskoff in Rossini's Il Viaggio a Reims at the prestigious Rossini Opera Festival in Pesaro, Italy. In 2009-2010 season he will debut the Metropolitan Opera covering Juan Diego Florez as Tonio and the role of Rinaldo in the Met's new production of Rossini's Armida. His upcoming engagements include Genova's Teatro Carlo Felice as Almaviva in Il barbiere di Siviglia, Firenze's Teatro del Maggio Musicale as Conte Liebenskoff in Rossini's Il Viaggio a Reims, Don Narciso in Turco in Italia with Deutsche Opera am Rhein, Mozart's Requiem at Carnegie Hall with the New York Choral Society, Handel's Messiah with the National Symphony Orchestra and Den Norske Opera, and La Cenerentola for his Opera Colorado debut.

In 2007 he made his debut with the Opera Orchestra of New York with Eve Queler in the role of Rodrigo in Rossini's Otello, which was followed by his debut at the Théâtre de la Monnaie in Brussels in the world premiere of Benoît Mernier's Friiblings Erwachen in the role of Hänschen Rilow and his debut as Lindoro in L'Italiana in Algeri at the Teatro Comunale in Bologna. He opened the 2007-2008 season at the Teatro dell'Opera in Rome as Ferrando in Così fan tutte, followed by Ramiro in La Cenerentola at the Connecticut Opera, and Handel's Judas Maccabeus with the LA Opera under the baton of James Conlon. In 2008-2009 season Mr. Angelini debuted Austin Lyric Opera and the Ft. Worth Opera Festival as Ramiro in La Cenerentola, followed by Haydn's Pisola Disabitata with Maestro Gelmetti in Siena.

Mr. Angelini began his 2005-2006 season in Martina Arroyo's "Prelude to Performance" program in New York City, where he was heard as Conte Almaviva in Il barbiere di Siviglia and as Don Curzio in Mozart's Le Nozze di Figaro. Mr. Angelini also performed the title role in Handel's Judas Maccabeus with the Long Island Chamber Symphony. Previous career highlights include his participation with the American Singers Opera Project for two summers, during which he made his stage debut as Fenton in Verdi's Falstaff and returned as Rinuccio in Puccini's Gianni Schicchi.

Michele Angelini was declared the winner of the Junior Men division of the NATS Competition and the first place recipient of a scholarship funded by the "Women in Music Columbus" Competition. In 2005 Michael was the recipient of an encouragement award from the Opera Index foundation in NYC. While at Ohio State, Mr. Angelini appeared as Henrick in Sondheim's A Little Night Music, as Nadir in Bizet's Les Pêcheurs de Perles, and as Rodolfo in Act III of Puccini's La bohème.

Michele Angelini was a Resident Artist at The Academy of Vocal Arts in Philadelphia where he has been heard as Conte Almaviva in their production of Il barbiere di Siviglia and as Triquet in concert performances of Eugene Onegin.
